

A. G. EDWARDS CORPORATE COMPLEX St. Louis, Missouri

Austin Tao & Associates has worked on several facilities expansion and improvement projects for A. G. Edwards. The A. G. Edwards corporate complex covers several blocks at the western edge of downtown St. Louis. The company's goal is to establish a visually unified, high quality campus within the context of an urban street grid. ATA has provided landscape and irrigation design for streetscape, building and parking garage projects.
